

Frequently asked questions

Can I still sell hot chips and soft drinks?

We understand that items such as hot chips and soft drinks are popular sellers. You can still sell them; we will introduce you to healthy options for those people who want to make better choices. We can also offer some suggestions for making unhealthy items healthier.

Where do I get healthy 'green' and 'amber' items from?

We can provide you with our Star Choice™ Buyer's Guide. This Guide is a comprehensive list of green and amber food and drinks, together with the suppliers and distributors of these products in WA. The Star Choice™ Buyer's Guide is a guide to help people make healthier food choices quickly and easily.

What if I want to use a product that is not listed in the Star Choice™ Buyer's Guide?

The Buyer's Guide is a resource book of healthier items. If you would like to use a different product and are not sure if it is green, amber or red contact our helpline on 9264 5096 or email fueltogether@education.wa.edu.au.

What about recipes?

If you have a recipe you would like to use, WASCA can assess the recipe and find out the colour coding. If the recipe does not meet the criteria for green or amber, we will give you suggestions on how to make it healthier.

What about existing suppliers and contracts and orders?

Our recommendations are intended as a guide only. If you have any contractual supplier obligations we may be able to provide a list of 'approved' green and amber food and drinks for those suppliers.

How long will it take to make changes?

That's up to you! This is an ongoing support service and we will be available to help anytime throughout your sponsorship with Healthway.

Will my profits suffer?

Quite the opposite! In most cases profits actually increase as more customers are becoming attracted to healthy food options.

Further questions?

If you have any questions we are available to assist every step of the way. If you need any help with implementing healthier choices please contact WASCA on 9264 5096 or email fueltogether@education.wa.edu.au.
